

BRIEF REVIEW OF 2003 WINCHESTER GRANGE FAIR/FLEA MARKET

1. To date we have 13 vendors for the Green, including one with live animals - llamas.
Dom will take care of the placement as usual - Bud and help will handle the setup of the green on Friday.
We will have coffee and do'nuts for the vendors early in the morning.

SET=UP on Wednesday???? Time ???

Saturday morning: Dana Forchette will be here early to check entries in.
Entries usually start coming in around 8:30 or so. Judging will be at 11:00.

Flowers - Mary and John Sullivan, Sara will help. Judge - Joe Cannavo

Baking: Arline Cote, Lousie Warren. Judge - Phyllis Wells
Don't forget we need items for sale, as well as for judging.

Vegetables: Don Fancher . Judge will be Jerry this year - we had a conflict with Harrison DeMars and Jerry has agreed.

Children's Games - Sue --- has prizes

Jewelry - Pam Wright. Need more items for the table, if anyone has some Raffle - Barbara English, Mildred Barshaw. Need items.

Joan Campi will have the changes for each department.

Hamburgs and Hotdogs - John and Pam Prevuznak, Ramona =
Grill should go outside before Friday as Amerigas will connect it on Friday.

Ice Cream - through kitchen window --- Eleanor, Arline Hurlbut

Sandwiches - made in kitchen and served mostly through the outside window. Will have iced tea, coffee --- here again these are passed out through the window or served inside.

Supper - We will serve from 5:00 to 6:30...Buffet style
Kitchen: Shirley, Marion --- during the day. For the supper: chen
Ramona , Don Fancher on the dishes, Marion, Shirley and Arlene stay in kit-
IN THE DINING ROOM: Sue, Sara, Louise, Arline (hostess) Linda Smith, have to check a few other . Eleanor
Coffee and Beverage - Craig. Pouring - Ben - Dell Smith?

You will notice I haven'e tlisted Todd anywhere -- that is because he is everywhere! Thank goodness for that!

Bud and Joan will be doing premium checks all afternoon.

Let's see what I have left out.

BOOKS...HOW COULD I FORGET! Still have no one specific, but think maybe John or Sara or Mary could keep an eye on the table while they are setting up flowers --- or following. This can be worked out.
